Guillamo de Tassato, It has come to the attention of she who watches that you are aware of the location of the Lantern of the Empire of Ophis. The Seer clad in Veils of Light wishes you no malice for possession of her item but wishes it returned to her unharmed. Upon conversation with the broker a deal for the safe return of the Lantern although the price offered was high. One of the Heralds of the Conclave of the Unblinking Eye would be willing to deal with her directly and not through intermediaries. The price offered for the Lantern is a fair one, information on any subject provided for you to the best of her ability within the three months. This offer is short lived, and the Sun and the Moon who watches the Celestial Eye shall use her power to make this possible for the Friday of the Winter Solstice 379YE. She who covered safely then it will be obvious to her that this is deliberate inaction on your part. She should dealing with you directly prove as fruitless as dealing with your military council. She sees all that your armies do and knows where they all dwell. Iorisnueth, High Vizier of Kimus
