

Imperial Friends,

I am greatly pleased that you have accepted the chance to strike back at the Jotun in retaliation for the atrocity committed at Jaelwif's Mound. My scouts have located a summer regio on the borders of Greenwall in Skallahn. Activity around this location suggests a meeting is about to take place, most likely with a herald of Hayaak the Murderer.

I invite you all to attend a meeting at The Eldfell, Miechernya, Miekarova where I am stationed at present. I will expect you at Thirty-Five Minutes past Seven on Friday Night. There I will give you the most up-to-date information from my scouts, which should allow you to perform this task.

I look forward to seeing you again,

Hoosfa Mek,

They/Them,

General of the Banner of the Rime Hound

Post Script

To Kindra Edasdottir, I owe a sincere apology. It appears I had failed to write down your name in my notes, and therefore the Winged Messenger was not sent to you along with the others last season. I hope you will accept my apology, and I look forward to meeting with you soon.
