

Dear Safir of House du Cercle,

I write to you of deeply concerning news from the grounds of the House. A great danger, which has slept for so long, has become active once again.

It seeks the earl of the House, Lady Elaine du Cercle, and will not stop until it has consumed her.

If you come to meet me, I can explain in more detail. Meet me in the grounds of the House, a waterfall in the Wasted Wood, at 15:55 on the Saturday of the spring equinox. Perhaps we can find a solution to this predicament together.

If possible, bring the earl.

Yours,

Osprey
