

Salutations Kahendrin Wordsmith,

I trust that you enjoyed my little puzzle in Upwold. I'm glad to hear you managed to abandon that little, backwater village.

I do hope that you recognise the need for what I did. Allowing our Queen of Dawn to triumph, to allow the Empire to triumph is a great thing. A virtuous thing. A glorious thing.

I plan to continue with my plan. If you do wish to be kept informed of my actions please respond to this letter with a winged messenger. I plan on leaving my current residence by the Monday of the Winter Solstice 380YC.

Yours,

Renée, Earl de L'oise
