

Your Imperial Majesty, Empress Lisabetta von Holberg, Merchant Prince of the Seven Mirrors,

It is my pleasure to inform you that the craftsmen of Holberg wish to construct a monument of the finest artwork that their hands can produce, a frieze depicting your life and coronation. A delegation from the Guilds of Holberg will be arriving during the summit, seeking audience with you to request your official permission for the frieze to be created and to discuss certain magical elements of the intended creation.

It is my understanding that the Guilds are a small amount short of the rare and precious materials that such an ambitious work requires and will also be seeking to meet that shortfall while at Anvil.

I hope that you will, in your wisdom, offer welcome to your Holberg fellows and grant them some of your valuable time.

Yours in loyal obedience,

Belladonna von Holberg, administrator to the Iron Bulwark Guild
