

To the valued Earl Bohemond de Rondell of Dawn,

I have a request to make of you. My niece, and heir, is travelling to Anvil this summer. She is being accompanied by her husband, Roland de Hauteville.

I would ask that you ensure that he is very well treated whilst in Anvil. Perhaps so much that he decides to stay in the Empire.

Do this for me and I will consider the debt you have to my family fully paid.

Yours,

Baron Harold Guiscard,

Kalino
