

Dear Burnlin,

The end to your quest draws near, and the Lord of the Crossroads expects to hear the tales you have gathered at the Autumn summit. In preparation of this, my lord the Iron Duke has asked that you advise his heralds what you have prepared so far so that he may begin to devise a suitable reward.

The heralds of the Iron Duke will be present at House Geris in Wintermark between the hours of 7 and 9 on the Friday of the upcoming summit. If you cannot make this meeting they will be present on the field on Sunday around 1pm and will try and find you then.

We look forward to our meeting, questor.

Yours,

Revel, herald of Barien

Dear Eadric,

You have indicated to the Lord of the Crossroads that your task is complete, and so you are due for a reward.

There will be a conjunction through your sentinel gate at 1pm on Saturday of the upcoming senate, to the Grove of the Thousand in Axmure, Semmerholm. There you will meet my lord the Iron Duke who will reward you appropriately. You may bring up to 5 others with you to witness the end of your quest if you desire.

One additional point; as part of your reward my lord has requested that you bring your favored shield with you.

My lord looks forward to meeting you, questor.

Yours,

Revel, herald of Barien

To the esteemed General Rykana

I am Elder Ga Nar of the Karass, and I speak on behalf of my people to your Empire.

I am to understand that it is you who have been leading the orc troops in the Barrens, intent on "breaking our chains" and insisting that you come as liberators.

You are under a misapprehension. We are not slaves, and should not be treated as such. We are an independent nation who holds claim to territory in the Bleaks and the Plains of Teeth.

If your Empire cedes these regions to us and does not settle Imperial people in our lands, then we will tolerate a state of vassalage in your Empire, and can discuss a normalisation of relations. If you, the Dawnish, or anyone else attempts to settle our lands and they are not placed under our control, we will resist. We are open to alternative suggestions if you wish to make them.

We wish to make it clear that, to put it bluntly, not interested in your way of life or your way of virtue. We have been living our lives independently for centuries and see no reason to change. If you intend to force us, so be it, but if we are to take you at your word that you are liberators you will give us this. Whatever your intentions, your Empire's actions here have now made my people's lives considerably more precarious in the short term; we do not thank you for this. The Druj border our lands, and it is dangerous for us to be seen to deal with the Empire, so you must understand our caution in any of our dealings.

Given the circumstances a meeting seems wise. I will make the trip personally to Anvil and will come meet you at 7 o'clock at your camp on the Saturday of the upcoming summit. If you are not present, I will speak with anyone who wishes to treat. It is up to you whether you wish to invite the Dawnish or anyone else from your Empire; we will deal honestly with anyone present as you wish.

Regards,

Elder Ga Nar of the Karass

Dear Ambassador Erasmo,

This message is sent with the authority of the Liege of the Five Winds. I am Nyamzul Ganbatar, cousin of Their Liege Tchinoa, sent to treat with you with specific purpose on behalf of my kin.

My Liege thanks the Empire for their continued friendship with the nation of Faraden and their investment in the project at Caitun. However, complications are arising that must be discussed between our people if our shared prosperity is to continue. My Liege feels that this matter is best discussed in person, due to its import, and would rather it not be committed to ink. They stress they do not think the Empire has acted ill, though note that the Empire's actions have far-reaching implications for all its neighbours.

I have been conducting some business in the Marches, and your prognosticators indicate there will be a conjunction to my location at the rather precise time of 5 past 1 on the Saturday of the upcoming summit. I can be found at The Canal House, Meade March, Mitwold in the Marches. Bring up to five others with you if you wish - my Liege understands you may wish to step down, so this seems like an opportune moment to involve your potential successors if you deem them trustworthy.

I look forward to meeting you soon.

Yours sincerely,

Nyamzul Ganbatar
