

CURSE

Curse ID: 29127

Your character is CURSED.

You find yourself constantly hungry and thirsty. Wholesome food or drink consumed tastes of nothing at all.

In addition, you cannot benefit from Bladeroot, True Vervain, Marrowort, Cerulean Mazzarine or Imperial Roseweald, nor any potion brewed from them. The herb or potion is used up, but has no effect. If a character applies a herb to you using the physick skill, you should let them know afterwards that it has had no effect..

You are also unaffected by ingested herbal poisons, including Gutwrench, Tisane of the Stuttering Fool and Tincture of the Whipped Cur. The exception to this "protection" is that the VENOM and WEAKNESS calls from Redwillow Paste and Oil of Blackthorn have their full effect on you.
