

I bring the greetings of my lord Zakalwe,

The team that participated in the Great Game have impressed by Lord greatly and such shall be awarded for your efforts. There was a discussion about what you would choose as a reward with many preferring a reward that could help on the grander strategic level, rather than an item chosen from the Panoply. Such rewards shall be given.

I intend to travel to the Dawnish Camp with my assistant the Opening Gambit with your rewards at half-past 7 of the evening on the Friday of the Summer Solstice. If you are unable to make this meeting in person, rewards can be given to a chosen representative.

I trust that this letter finds you well.

Yours,

Agon, Polomarch of Clarity, Gamesmaster of Zakalwe
