

Dear Miranda and Armand di Sarvos of the Guild of Eyes & Scales,

I write to you regarding an upcoming business opportunity and matter of interest to you as a fellow citizen of Sarvos. Despite not meeting you I have heard of your work from various friends on the street and have a substantial amount of respect for your activities. To give some context, I am Luciano di Sarvos of the Guild of the Velvet Glove, the collective that recently gave Silvio a particular 'message', and shall soon be arriving in Anvil escorted by the individual who gave you this letter.

We know that the individual named above lost something that was precious to them and we are possibly in a position to deliver this something to Anvil. However, it would be remiss of us to give up an opportunity to engage in some Prosperity and so will be holding a sealed bid auction at around 23:00 tonight. The winner, whoever that ends up being, will receive the item so dear to our mutual acquaintance. I hope it is clear that the value of this ring is not just in the monetary value of the resources placed into crafting it.

Our escort, who gave you this letter, will be inviting a number of the most known Cartas of our nation to the auction after they have found a suitable location but I wanted to give a personal invite to both of you as people who know more about the political state of affairs than we currently do. This invitation includes two further invites for you to bring two parties who would be interested in engaging with this auction and acquiring the item. Additionally, and perhaps most importantly, we would like to offer you a 10% commission on any proceeds of the auction above 11 Thrones. Hopefully, you can see the opportunity for you here.

May Prosperity lead you and Wisdom guard you,

Luciano Di Sarvos

I, Constanza Von Kolberg, do place a maximum bid of 16 Thrones on the item held by Luciano di Sarvos of the Guild of the Velvet Glove. Notice of winning the auction shall be done via Winged Messenger after the Autumn Solstice 379Y5 to the address that was included in the prior communication from the bidder to the seller.

The Golden Prince and the Reckoner of Ebony & Bone, Prospero the Weaver, informs the holder of this missive that they are aware of the item being auctioned by Luciano di Sarvos and wishes to state an amount to include in the auction of the Autumn Anvil Summit. The bid is of One Moderate Favour to be delivered to the seller of the item.
