

Greetings to the esteemed Orc Gralka,

I trust that you survived the return through the hostile land of Kalino,

I am writing to you to thank you once again for your capable ministrations during my illness at the wedding.

I intend to claim the Ducal seat of Kalino for my house, I am writing to inform you of this so that you, and yours, may assist me in the coming year.

House Guiscard are the primary house for being able to assist the Empire. I trust I do not need to explain the reasons to you.

If you wish to reply to this letter using one of the accursed winged missives, you may send to my priest Jean-Armand who resides in my keep.

Yours,
Baron Harold Guiscard,
Kalino
