

To the Raven Seer,

I have sad news. My predecessor Kylikki Grewolf has passed away peacefully, and his soul has been taken to the place of birds. Or, the labyrinth if you prefer that term, haha.

I have taken over his position organising the seers here at Ishal and I have learned he was saving something valuable for a moment that will likely never come. Please come to discuss this with me, there is a conjunction at half past ten on the first night of the solstice, to Ishal, in Skymark, Kallavesa.

Afterwards, we can all partake of the Raven's Dream, and learn what fate has in store for us, so bring every mystic you can find.

Yours, lost in dreams

Maiko Grewolf
