

A Contract of Recovery

The Parties

The First Party of this Contract is

Balthazar

Servant to the Eternal Prospero of the Realm of Autumn

The Second Party of this Contract is

Saeed J Taziel J Riqueza

Merchant and Adventurer

Termination of Prior Contract

Upon the signing of this contract by the First and Second parties, all previous contracts between these parties shall be rendered null and void and the terms of this new contract take effect.

The Obligations of the First Party

The First Party guarantees that Saeed J Taziel, and member of the Taziel Family every seventy years thereafter shall receive a boon from the Eternal Prospero.

The First Party guarantees that the boon from the Eternal Prospero shall take the form of an enchantment that enables the recipient to gain supernatural knowledge of a person with whom they are dealing, or an object they possess.

The First Party guarantees that the boon shall be granted to the member of the Taziel family that travels to a region potent with Autumn magic and uses the Open Portal spell to invoke the Eternal Prospero and demand that the bargain be fulfilled.

Upon receipt of The Lignum Estavus and The Pugione Estavus, the First Party will ensure the safe passage of the Second Party to the territory of Feroz.

The Obligations of the Second Party

The Second Party shall give The Lignum Estavus and The Pugione Estavus to the First Party.

Completion and Penalty

Once all obligations have been met, this contract shall be discharged and no longer have any force.

If one of the parties does not meet their obligations under the contract, it shall be grounds for the summoning of the Lictors against the party, or parties, at fault.

Signed the Autumn Equinox of 107 VE,