

[sca,

You seem to have more ambition and vision than the others in Navarr,

We require the help of you and your coven to help Ciathaven,

There is a Spring Regio, the Circle of Beggarsgrove, in Ciath's Heart.

[If you can get there we will meet you there.

Bring mana, we have little.

We have a Web of Celestial Attunement, so our covens may work together.

We also have the ability to boost your Spring magics, but we do not have the mana to create rivers through the heart of the forest, to awaken the trees or to create fortresses from the forest.

We shall use the power of Spring to destroy the Jotun

They cannot be allowed to awake the Vallorn

Death to the Orcs
