

Wendigo Spirit

You are possessed by a Winter Spirit

You should roleplay the following themes in addition to any other traits you normally would have:

- Extoll your strength, destroy the weak
- Overthrow those who conform to rules
- Relish pain, murder and destruction
- Driven towards self-destruction

The longer a possession lasts the more debased and aggressive the possessee will become. In some cases this can result in acts of flagellation, mutilation or even cannibalism.
