

My good friend Corvus,

I hope that you are well, I am upset that you are no longer Archmage but politics aside, you shall always be my favourite in the Empire.

I have decided to attend the Empire on the Sunday of the Equinox and have granted invitations to several people. Anyone else will need a Child who has not passed their citizenship test to speak to me and convince me why they are worth speaking to.

You and your Apprentice Luke, I offer the freedom to come and go to this Audience as my personal guests as you please.

I look forward to seeing you again

Your Friend

Meraud