

To the Imperial Representative of the City of Locks, Ashborn Trosk

One season remains on your contract - How do you fare?

We feel a meeting would be useful to discuss your efforts, any successes or failures, as we consider whether to renew, alter, or withdraw our agreement.

A pocket of the realm will open for you at 1pm on Saturday afternoon, and a herald will meet you in the Hall of Worlds to guide the way.

Furthermore, the Keeper of the Weir has information which will be of great interest to a figure of high standing within your Conclave, and wishes to arrange a trade. Bring no more than three others to this meeting and we will trade pieces of useful information (there are six in total) for any of the following:

- ~ Ten shards of Crystal Fire,*
- ~ Twenty Crystal Mana,*
- ~ Any Magic Weapon (Biting Blade, Reaving Mattock, etc),*
- ~ Fifteen Green Iron*
- ~ A piece of paper containing someone else's deep and shameful secret,*
- ~ A contract binding the buyer to perform one task for The Sovereign Lord of the City of Locks at a time of his choosing, within the next year.*
- ~ A contract to submit one Conclave Declaration as written by the Prince of the Black Vaults, within the next year, signed by a Grand Master and enforced by a curse.*

Each price may only be paid once. The Herald may consider other offers, but such will be at their complete discretion.

On behalf of the Sovereign Lord of Locks, Basileus Flint,

The Scribes of the Black Weir.
