

Lucian of Ephemeris

Lucian, we were so pleased your brother brought you to meet us on the last Solstice, and so disappointed that our quest to fight the Drake was at the same time as a celebration you could not miss. We would like to know you further, and perhaps encourage you to join us on a quest to fight another fabulous creature, should conjunctions align this Equinox.

Will you meet us, as we join a handful of those who did fight the Drake at The Forge for drinks, and to plan the next steps for the Venatores Illustres? We meet at half past eight on the Friday evening of the Equinox and hope to see you there along with Arcus Netherwatch and some Dawnish colleagues.

Yours,

Lady Heliabel Lionsgate
