

Rhodri of the woods-that-Fell

You must keep moving

Now you have met with the clan of Yellow Flowers you should have enough numbers to push past the old Tower you describe

You should search for the old Pig which is great and white and in the ground then continue straight west from there

one or two days travel and you should find Conors Rock a Dolmen where the ground is full of chalk

I will send another message to you there which you will only receive when you get there

That will have the final directions to find us with you should make sure the Imperials do not get it
