

Thank you for your patience whilst your items were being written and we sincerely apologise for the delay.

This pack notice indicates you have received the updated version of the ribbon you gained from Apeiron.

Your Ribbon ID is: 39226

If you did not receive a ribbon, but instead made an offer, you will have received one in your pack too.

If you did not receive a ribbon in your pack called 'Glowing Mnemonic Orb', please go to GOD at your earliest convenience and inform them you are missing a ribbon for Ribbon ID: 39226

This item has now been fully created and you should read the visible ribbon text thoroughly.

The item may have had further detail added to it and may return further information from divination or investigative rituals.

Please ensure you dispose of the previously printed ribbon and retain this new one and attach it to the Orb that was provided to you. (If you did not receive an orb, you may choose a suitable orb-shaped physrep instead to represent this item.)

You do not need to return the Orb! They are now yours to keep. I have included a spare LED light in each orb if you wish to keep yours lit. If you run out of battery lights, please feel free to replace with one of your own or see Autumn at the Regio tent for the orb light stash.

To Bond to this item, please see Referee Autumn at the Regio tent.
