

To the Imperial Inquisitor,

I am glad to hear of your survival of the unpleasantness in Upwold.

I regret that we were unable to have a reasonable conversation during the Wassail. I do wonder if you would be interested in attending a meeting with myself at some point over next year?

I trust that you understand that I will be unable to attend an Anvil summit any time soon, and that when I am able to attend I will let you know, so any attempt to summon me to Inquisition will not result in my attendance. You can view this as my disregarding the powers of the Synod if you wish, but you would be wrong.

I will, if you wish me to, keep you abreast of my varied activities within the Empire. Just send me a winged messenger and I will make sure to respond to you by the Spring Equinox 381 YE.

Yours,

Renée, Earl de L'oise
