

Senator Juliana,

My name is Seòsaidh Morganach, and I am an advisor to the Council of Salt Lords. I write to you concerning a rumour I have heard about illicit activity taking place at your political summit this solstice.

I believe that agents of Salt Lord Kaliact, Governor of Spiral, are attending a meeting with several Imperial title holders. A meeting which she has tried to keep secret from the rest of the Council. Whilst she has every legal right to negotiate for her own sake, it seems suspect that Kaliact has chosen this summit to do so, given that our peace treaty is due for renegotiation at the following one. I would very much like to know what goes on in that meeting, and what terms may or may not be agreed to.

If you, or someone you trust, can get into that negotiation then I will ensure you are rewarded for any information you can provide. Such details may be sent to me by a winged messenger. It is imperative that I receive any such information before the end of this summit, so that I have time to act upon it before the delegation is assembled for the main treaty negotiations.

Yours in Fidelity,
