

To the Guild of Eyes & Scales from Luciano di Sarvos,

Greetings to you both, I hope that this letter finds you well.

Business in Sarvos keeps me busy but I aim to join you in Anvil tomorrow for a few hours in the afternoon. It is to this end that I write to you in advance.

When last in Anvil, and in the events that lead to our meeting Horsa of Wintermark conducted a number of actions against me that I believe he is yet to be held accountable for. The business of that day was business of the League and he had no place in it, never mind the harm and injury he inflicted upon me. Therefore I ask that in order to settle the reckoning owed to him that you aid me in laying a unique curse upon him as a sign of your Loyalty to me and our new partnership. I leave the specifics of the curse to you due to your expertise in this area and I expect I will not be disappointed in what you manage to create. As a night mage of some skill I will of course be happy to assist you in the casting of this ritual as well as that of any other ritual whilst I am with you that you wish for extra strength with. I will similarly be bringing mana with me to offset some of the costs you will incur in this enterprise.

After that business has finished I would be interested in discussing with you what future opportunities there are for us and what you can teach me, eager as I am to learn more of the advanced forms of ritual magic.

I have also heard of an undisclosed bounty placed on a member of Varushka by the Whisper Gallery which I think I could help with.

May Prosperity Drive You and Wisdom Guide You
