

To the Generals of the Black Thorns and the Quiet Step,

I hereby invite your representatives from the Vates of Navarr to meet with a Delegation of my Heralds on the Saturday of the Winter Solstice. The Delegation will arrive at 3pm and will meet at a location arranged by the Archmage of day.

Along with your representatives I would like between the two of you and the Vates, choose the two warriors you believe are the exemplars of the Navarr fighting style, your most perfect warriors. They shall be offered an opportunity to compete in a special challenge in my name.

I look forward to hearing the results from my Delegation.

Yours,

Zakalwe
