

The curse upon this individual appears to be incredibly potent - and likely fatal if not negated.

This affliction can be interacted with, given the assistance of a referee, as if it were ribbon #30047 which has the title 'The Ashen Curse' and has responses for Insight and Wisdom of the Balanced Blade.

Rip Here

Magical Affliction:

An agonizing blackening of the flesh spreads from your hand - skin cracking and ash sloughing from the wounds. The blight's progress slows beyond your wrist, but the sensation of being raked from within by innumerable glass shards advances much faster towards your heart.

This card may be ripped and opened when you are the target of 'Detect Magic', with the caster being permitted to read its contents.

If you have not had this affliction treated by one hour before time out, consult a referee.

Rip Here

The curse upon this individual appears to be incredibly potent - and likely fatal if not negated.

This affliction can be interacted with, given the assistance of a referee, as if it were ribbon #30047 which has the title 'The Ashen Curse' and has responses for Insight and Wisdom of the Balanced Blade.

Rip Here

Magical Affliction:

An agonizing blackening of the flesh spreads from your hand - skin cracking and ash sloughing from the wounds. The blight's progress slows beyond your wrist, but the sensation of being raked from within by innumerable glass shards advances much faster towards your heart.

This card may be ripped and opened when you are the target of 'Detect Magic', with the caster being permitted to read its contents.

If you have not had this affliction treated by one hour before time out, consult a referee.

Rip Here

The curse upon this individual appears to be incredibly potent - and likely fatal if not negated.

This affliction can be interacted with, given the assistance of a referee, as if it were ribbon #30047 which has the title 'The Ashen Curse' and has responses for Insight and Wisdom of the Balanced Blade.

Rip Here

Magical Affliction:

An agonizing blackening of the flesh spreads from your hand - skin cracking and ash sloughing from the wounds. The blight's progress slows beyond your wrist, but the sensation of being raked from within by innumerable glass shards advances much faster towards your heart.

This card may be ripped and opened when you are the target of 'Detect Magic', with the caster being permitted to read its contents.

If you have not had this affliction treated by one hour before time out, consult a referee.

Rip Here

The curse upon this individual appears to be incredibly potent - and likely fatal if not negated.

This affliction can be interacted with, given the assistance of a referee, as if it were ribbon #30047 which has the title 'The Ashen Curse' and has responses for Insight and Wisdom of the Balanced Blade.

Rip Here

Magical Affliction:

An agonizing blackening of the flesh spreads from your hand - skin cracking and ash sloughing from the wounds. The blight's progress slows beyond your wrist, but the sensation of being raked from within by innumerable glass shards advances much faster towards your heart.

This card may be ripped and opened when you are the target of 'Detect Magic', with the caster being permitted to read its contents.

If you have not had this affliction treated by one hour before time out, consult a referee.

Rip Here