

Hail to you Archmage of Day

I write this message on behalf of Kimus, the Ceaseless Watcher

They wish to inform you that several Heralds will be attending this Summit to view the coronation and to interview Imperial Citizens

They should arrive at 2pm on the Saturday of the Winter Solstice

Kimus does not seek an interview with the Empress Elect or any of their Entourage

Rather we wish to know what the common citizen of Anvil thinks of their new Empress.

The Heralds are there to observe rather than act as my Proxies

We ask that you keep any messages or requests brief and limited to the most urgent of communications

I wish to extend my gratitude ahead of time for any assistance you are able to render

Kimus the All-Seeing Eye is Watching
