

Sirka, Yelisaveta, Ilya

We are the Sobolisa. You may know our name from song or legend – furtrappers brave enough to work the valleys and forests between Olvanshka and the Weeping Stone.

We seek help, to prevent things from straying from the path. We seek folk to understand the problem we find and talk with us to find the best answer.

We are relying on three things.

First The Sentinel Gate must align and offer a way for those in Anvil to come to us here at the Sobolisa Cabin in Kamienczka in Karov. Next we place hopes in Péter a young man set on his path as a Wise One by another that he knows as "Grandfather Stag". We believe he will have found his place in the Varushkan camp. And last, we turn to you the Egregores to help him navigate his way to us, with others who can advice us on the problem which – if we do not act may threaten much of our region.

Our Sobolisa Cabin in Kamienczka, Karov is in no danger right now. We hope that in receiving council from those who are more Wise than us, we might also swap a story or song or trade a little in small things.

Stay safe on the road
