

Elayne Brightsmith

Thank you for your letter,

I am afraid, that it is unlikely that we will be able to research such an undertaking for you. The Purple Sails are stretched trying to arrange new contracts with the Bourse and do not have the resources at this moment for private undertakings.

I suggest, that you speak to Sesi Shila, who I believe is a Suag Stromcrow and also one of the Egregores of the Wintermark nation. If anyone knows this story, then I expect it would be them.

May your quest find you great prosperity
