

CURSE

Curse ID: 29128

Your character is CURSED.

You are aware, constantly, of the many intricate workings inside your body keeping you alive. You feel each thump of your heart, the rush of your blood, the contracting and relaxing of each of your muscles as you move.

You feel immensely powerful and immensely fragile; overcome with a desire to exert your strength over others to feed your power and diminish your terrible vulnerability.

Furthermore, you have a drive to hunt Agramant, and all things associated with him.
