

To the capable General, William Talbot

I write to inform you of my intent to claim the Ducal seat of Kalino for the House Guiscard.

I trust that you understand the ramifications of one such as myself, who sees the Empire as an ally rather than an enemy, claiming the seat over one of the other two houses who have already stated their intent.

I can offer no direct military support at this point in time, however I may be able to offer my own limited troops in the future if we come to an arrangement.

If you wish to send me a reply please direct your accursed winged missive to my priest Jean-Armand who resides in my own keep.

Yours,
Baron Harold Guiscard,
Kalino
