

Mordrín Wínterbuílt

I, Baron of the Bone Orchard have been charged to vísit Anvíl on the Fríday evening of the Summer Solstice along with some Wrathful Knights.

I will be heading to the Glory Square sometime around 6.30 or 7 in the evening on particular business there.

I have options for you to consider from Surut, The Ashen Knight himself. It would be convenient if you could attend my business in the square. You may find it interesting to see and once it is concluded, we can talk as a I escort my guardians back to the Hall of Worlds.

If this is not convenient for you, please send a messenger to the Glory Square and I will follow their directions to find you after this business is concluded. Please make sure they know where you will be found.
