The Burnt Prince has decided to offer you a chance at more information. I will bring three Wrathful Knights to your Glory Square - we expect to arrive between 6.30 and 7 pm on the Friday evening of the Solstice.

You may fight yourselves or have anyone fight them on your behalf — The Ashen Knight does not care for the details — for each win, a piece of information.

I have written to you both. We hope to reach you from the Hall of Worlds without incident — though I have some concern that the Knights appearance may make that challenging. Perhaps you will be able to support our crossing of Anvil or send others to do so.

I am, The Baron of the Bone Orchard
