

*Raewynn Stormwise
Grandmaster of the Rod and Shield*

Thank you for your words to my Heralds, they spoke highly of what you said when they returned. Of all the Grandmasters, your words stood out to my Heralds, and this does you much credit.

I have decided to attend the Empire at midday the Sunday of the Equinox and have granted invitations to several people. Anyone without an Invite from me will need a Child who has not passed their citizenship test to speak to me and convince me why they are worth speaking to. This I hope will mean that anyone who wishes to speak to me, will get the opportunity.

You have a personal invite to speak to me and please show this letter as an invite and I will make speaking to you a priority.

I remain

Meraud - The Golden Magician
