

Marshwalker Brief

“Masses of vegetation held together by thick slime”

- Primal instinct - drawn to movement, sound and threats close to them
- Rotting vegetation - comprised of soil, rocks, weeds, plants and moss
- Detritus of battle - incorporate rusted plate or broken swords into their form

“Inimical to structures of civilisation”

- Determined journey - will move with a single purpose, through any obstacle
- React to threats - passive if left alone, mobilise against aggressors
- Destructive force - will seek to tear down and destroy any structure in their path
