

CLAIM WHAT IS YOURS !

Do not surrender your destiny to others!

Defy the Laws and Empire that seek to control you!

At the Spring Equinox, two of my sect, Igor Borison and Ivanna Martina Denisovitch defied the Lucidian law passed by the corrupt Senate and brought forth an illuminating aura within the Senate itself. This act saw them condemned and executed.

And yet, I know, deep in my heart, that many of you yearn for your freedom. I understand that, given the chance, you would tear off the shackles that the Senators and Cardinals secretly bind you in with promises they cannot make or keep.

Who is better to decide what is right for you, than you?

I offer any that would heed my words the chance to receive dedication to the path that, above all others, truly liberates your soul in this life, and all others.

I cannot come lightly to Anvil whilst the tyrants hold sway, nor can I receive letters. Yet you can tell me your name and where you may be found through Autumn's Winged Messenger.

Let none deny you your destiny.
