

Friends,

I am sure that you are aware of many of the stories that Rhonwen took on our behalf so many years ago. Many of the tales of that time are not widely told, but as I am sure that you are all aware, any deal with Eternals of the Winter Realm are not without a long price.

The withering of the Vallorn in Miaren was a great victory, some would say the greatest victory that the Empire has known. What many have speculated but none that I have spoken to seem to know the answer, why the withering has not been recreated in over 350 years.

What is not known by many is that three times since the Withering of Miaren, Rhonwen's fall has wept blood. None of these times within my lifetime, however. The signs have started again and a trickle of blood has started running from the streams again.

I will try to come to the Summer Solstice to speak to those who are interested about the stories, Although I do not know what had caused this, I think that it is a fair assumption that this is linked to the deals that Rhonwen made with the Winter Realm.

May you walk in Wisdom
