

I am Crescendo, Herald of Eleonaris,

We have spoken of how once, the Lion of Summer almost took an Empress as Consort. We have spoken of how it could, but perhaps not should, happen again. We have spoken of how any Imperial Citizen must be a mage of Summer, and hold the title of at least Archmage or Empress to attract the attention of our Lady of the Pennants.

I write now to let it be known that the Feast that is Foretold will be happening, hosted by the Imperial House of Gauvain at the Summer Solstice. It is Not Known, if this Feast will have the same effect it did in times past. The Lady has not committed to a courtship. But it is a possibility.

Should you, or one you have found wish to pursue the courtship, remember that it is not them that will attend the Feast, it is one who will speak for them - as the Leonine Child attends for the Queen of the Fields of Glory.

This is my last word on the matter, I have meddled much already and may face the wrath of the Queen of Summer.

Crescendo

I am Crescendo, Herald of Eleonaris,

We have spoken of how once, the Lion of Summer almost took an Empress as Consort. We have spoken of how it could, but perhaps not should, happen again. We have spoken of how any Imperial Citizen must be a mage of Summer, and hold the title of at least Archmage or Empress to attract the attention of our Lady of the Pennants.

I write now to let it be known that the Feast that is Foretold will be happening, hosted by the Imperial House of Gauvain at the Summer Solstice. It is Not Known, if this Feast will have the same effect it did in times past. The Lady has not committed to a courtship. But it is a possibility.

Should you, or one you have found wish to pursue the courtship, remember that it is not them that will attend the Feast, it is one who will speak for them - as the Leonine Child attends for the Queen of the Fields of Glory.

This is my last word on the matter, I have meddled much already and may face the wrath of the Queen of Summer.

Crescendo

I am Crescendo, Herald of Eleonaris,

We have spoken of how once, the Lion of Summer almost took an Empress as Consort. We have spoken of how it could, but perhaps not should, happen again. We have spoken of how any Imperial Citizen must be a mage of Summer, and hold the title of at least Archmage or Empress to attract the attention of our Lady of the Pennants.

I write now to let it be known that the Feast that is Foretold will be happening, hosted by the Imperial House of Gauvain at the Summer Solstice. It is Not Known, if this Feast will have the same effect it did in times past. The Lady has not committed to a courtship. But it is a possibility.

Should you, or one you have found wish to pursue the courtship, remember that it is not them that will attend the Feast, it is one who will speak for them - as the Leonine Child attends for the Queen of the Fields of Glory.

This is my last word on the matter, I have meddled much already and may face the wrath of the Queen of Summer.

Crescendo