

Laffiette De Maniesperte Morosini Von Temeschwar

I hope you remember that your debt is coming due. 10 Thrones to be passed to Callidus, Sovereign Lord of the City of Chains this Equinox.

In Winter, we offered you help dealing with the debt – you did not answer. In Summer we had hoped to offer you help again, but you were not in Anvil.

If you are in Anvil this season, do come and meet my Herald. You can either pay the debt – or if you feel that the mists that were around in Winter have contributed to your inability to pay, we can discuss extended terms.

Make yourself known to the Herald in charge of the High Tontine, in the Hall of Worlds, shortly before 4 in the afternoon on the Saturday of the Equinox
