

My friend,

The Emerald Meridian has been Prosperous this season, and we wish to spend some of this wealth to make the journey from Morrow to Anvil.

I will accompany Polygenus to the Autumn Equinox summit, where we are eager to meet with you to discuss the curse you are bearing the help their recovery.

Polygenus assures me they will be able to answer questions with regard to these curses, and wishes to speculate about the nature of the transformations you may be offered at the end of these four seasons.

We aim to take tea at the Sentinel's Repose at 1300 on the Sunday of the summit, and invite you to meet us there.

Should there be any difficulty, you can of course reach us with a Winged Messenger.

Yours,

Callisto of the Emerald Meridian
