

Juha,

Spider

I would have a meeting. I would meet with the one who is Imperial Seen and the Sage of the Vallorn.

I would have this meeting overseen by you, or by other Varushkans that you appoint.

An Eternal must hold this meeting in an audience chamber. I would suggest that eternal Lashonar hosts this meeting in his shadowed forum, but the reticence of the Empire to deal with Lashonar for access to the forum makes the eternal disinclined to arrange the meeting, but we do not wish outsiders to come to the Chamber Beneath the Ash. Maybe a suitable alternative can be found.

I contain the knowledge of the Winter wards used to hold Emrys at bay. Yet I seek knowledge that the Sage of the Vallorn has. The knowledge of a Spring Rite that can unmake the web that dwells at the heart of Emrys.

An exchange of this information would be a beginning. It could lead to an exchange of the rituals themselves.

I await your reply, once you have secured the aid of an Eternal who will host this meeting in their chamber, and the agreement of Seen and Sage.

Who Gazes Upon the Bright Orb,

The Throne of Hinodin,
