

Daddy Fox

Daddy Fox went out on a chilly night
 With a ring tong dilly dong kyro me
 Prayed for the moon to give him light
 With a ring tong dilly dong kyro me.

Hey fa la lee, fa la la, fa la lero,
 Hey fa la lero lero lee
 Up jumped John, ringin' on his bell
 With a ring tong dilly dong kyro me

He ran till he came to a cozy pen
 With a ring tong dilly dong kyro me
 The ducks and geese were kept therein
 With a ring tong dilly dong kyro me

He grabbed the grey goose by the neck
 With a ring tong dilly dong kyro me
 Up with the little ones over his back
 With a ring tong dilly dong kyro me

Old Mother Flipper-Flopper jumped out of bed
 With a ring tong dilly dong kyro me
 Out of the window she stuck her little head
 With a ring tong dilly dong kyro me

John ran up to the top of the hill
 With a ring tong dilly dong kyro me
 Blew his little horn both loud and shrill
 With a ring tong dilly dong kyro me

The fox he ran to his cozy den
 With a ring tong dilly dong kyro me
 There were the little ones 8, 9, 10
 With a ring tong dilly dong kyro me

Then the fox and his wife without any strife
 With a ring tong dilly dong kyro me
 Cut up the goose with a carving knife
 With a ring tong dilly dong kyro me

With a ring tong dil-ly dong ky-ro me

With a ring tong dil-ly dong ky-ro me Hey fa la lee, fa la la, fa la le - ro, Hey fa la le - ro le - ro lee, Up jumped John, ring-ing on his bell With a ring tong dil - ly dong ky - ro me
